Foreword

As the silhouette is a representation in outline so the 1955 Indian Call is a representation in outline of the year's work and play.

If you will observe, it doesn't take
A man of giant mould to make
A giant shadow on the wall;
And he who in our daily sight
Seems but a figure mean and small,
Outlined in Fame's illusive light,
May stalk, a silhouette sublime,
Across the canvas of his time.

Authors' Night

Sandra,
Good Luck to you in your junior year. I hope you are so happy and have as much fun as I have had.

Sandra,
The year is almost over and it's been nice knowing you even if I haven't been in class with you very often. You have many friends and deserve every one you have. Have fun this summer and all work too. Best of luck to the girl. See you soon!

The P.T.A. officers for 1954-55 were (left to right) Mrs. Earl Stanley, courtesy; Mrs. Don Amos, treasurer, Mrs. Ernest Ensign, president; Mrs. M. C. Feiden, recreation; Mrs. Will Frederikson, membership; Mrs. John Stewart, carnival; Mrs. Orval Lewis, historian; Clyde W. Rothgeb, Principal of High School; Mrs. Alfred Harkness, vice presilent; A. K. Massey, Principal of Junior High; and Mrs. Herb Chittenden, publicity.

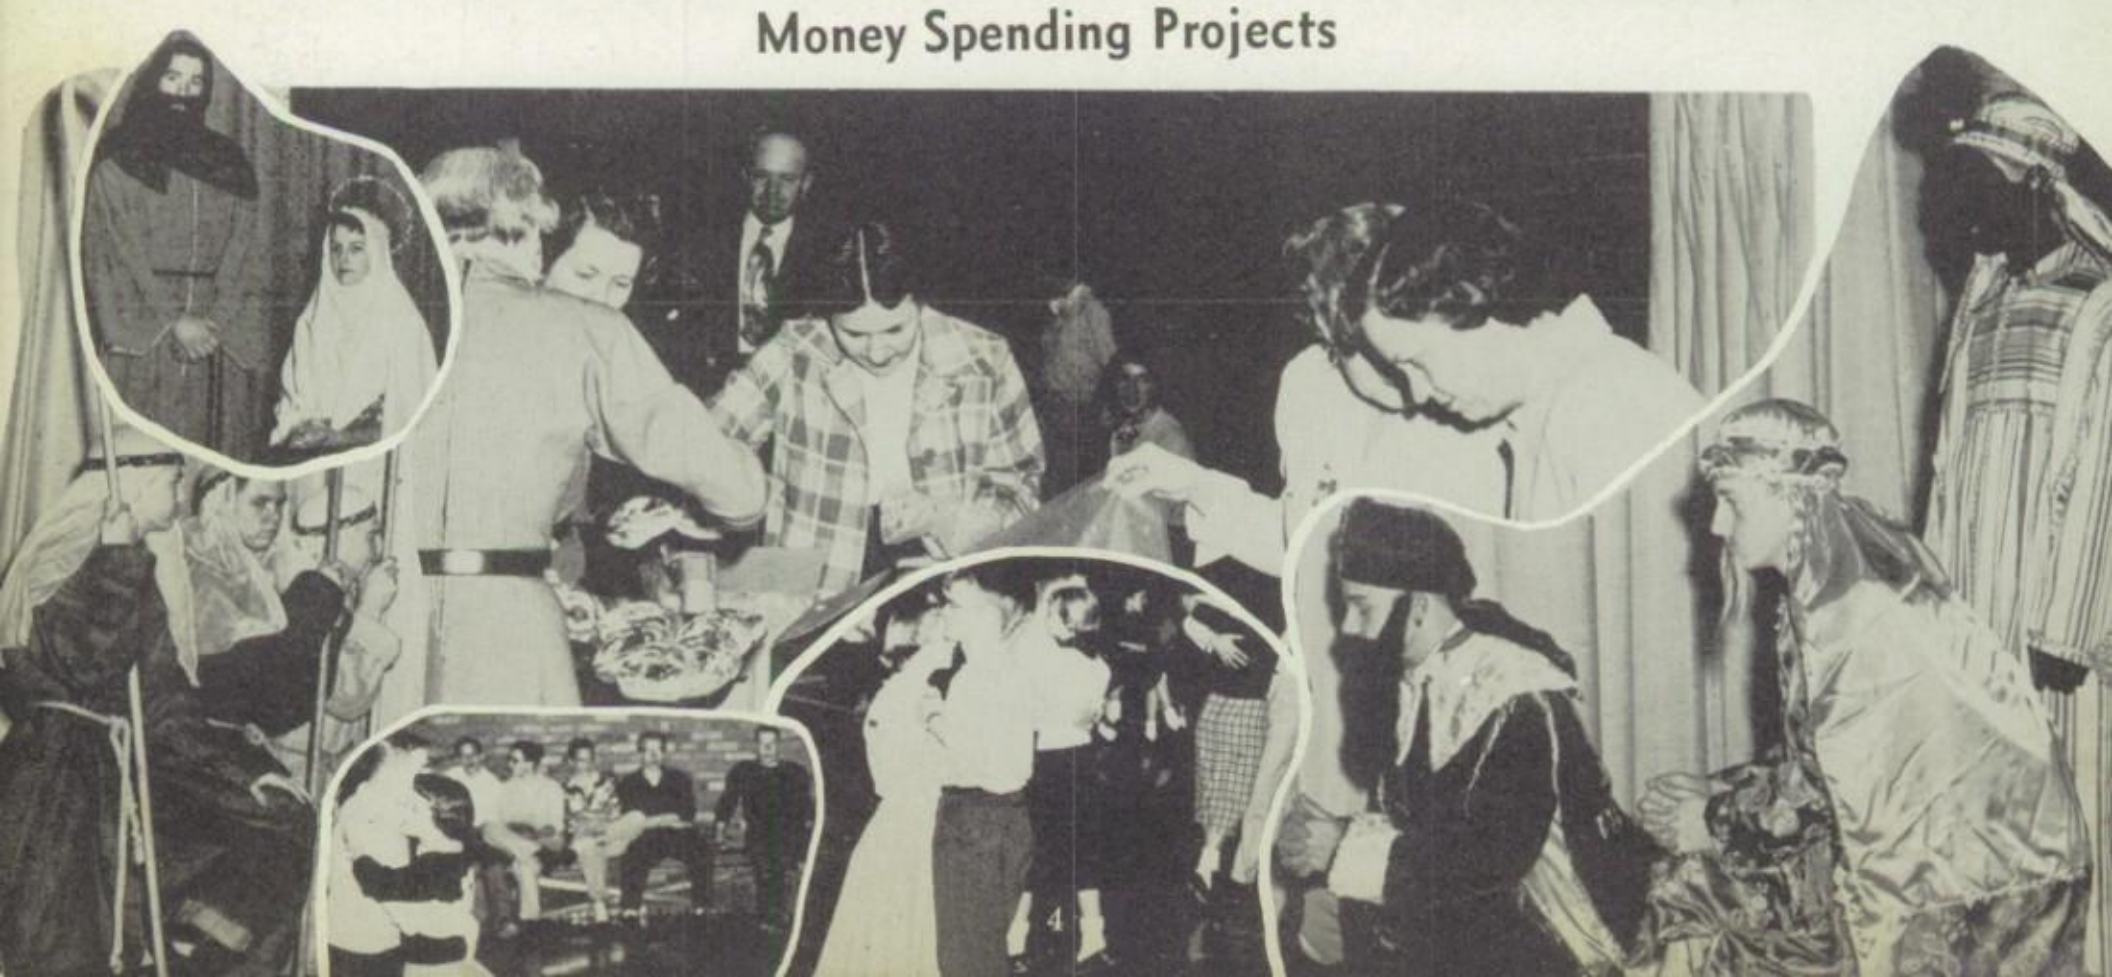
P.T.A. Backs School

Through educational and entertaining program the P.T.A. backs the school. It secures the equipment and finer things which the school board is unable to provide for in their budget. The P.T.A. raises their money by sponsoring the annual school carnival.

This year a few of the things the P.T. A. did for the school were: sponsoring after game dances, buying a lace table cloth for the tea table, buying robes for the Christmas Pageant, helping financially with the senior trip, and the junior-senior prom reception. Whenever and wherever they saw a place where they could better the school program, the P.T.A. was there to help.

Money Making Projects

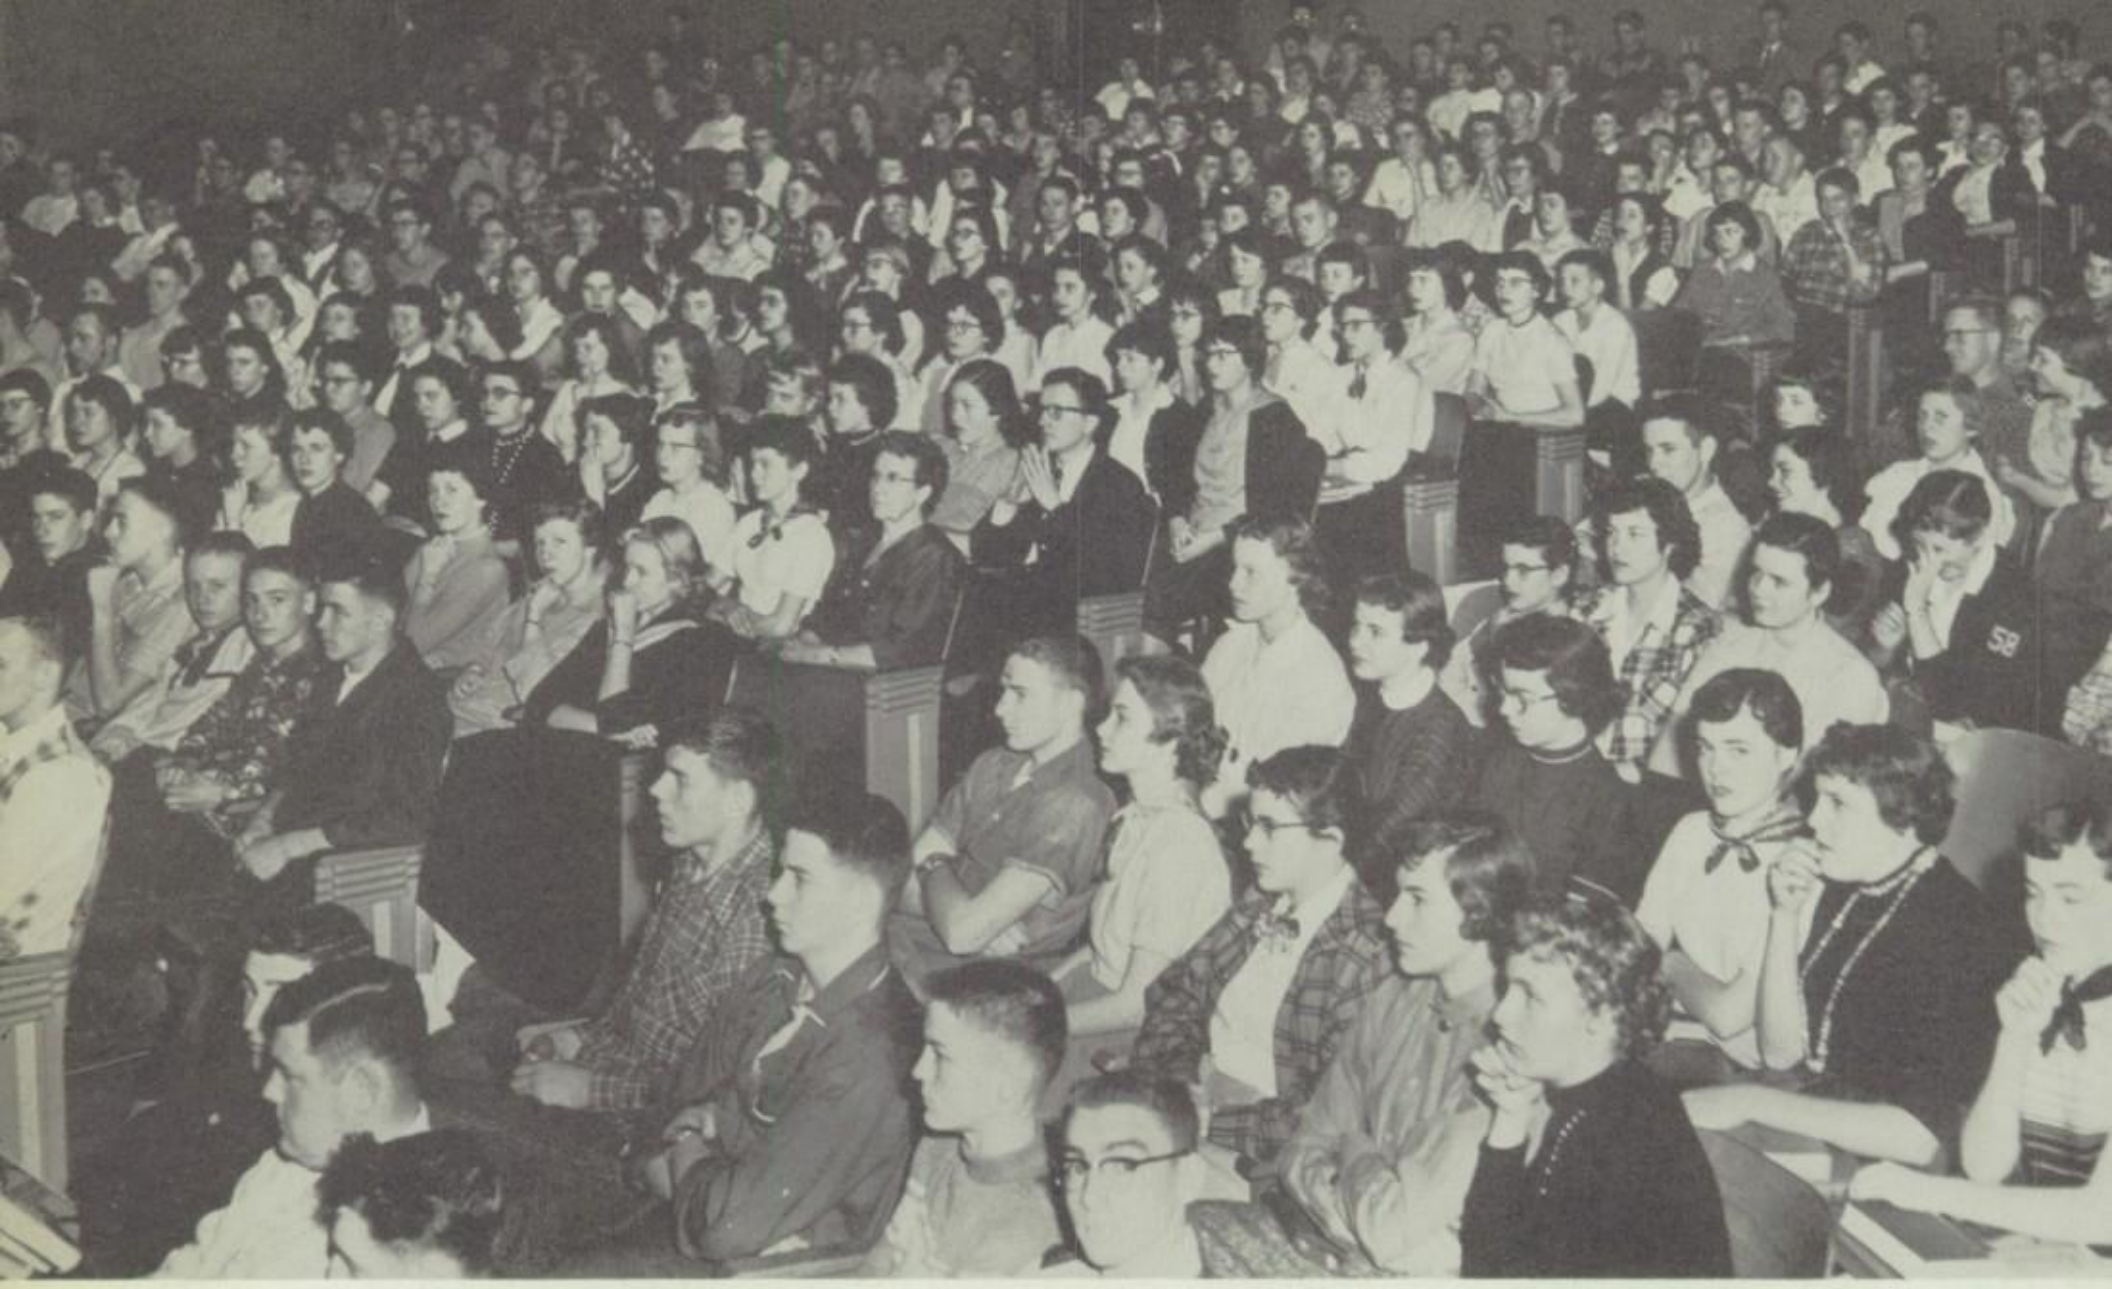
Money Spending Projects



Dedication

Back of every successful college student is a good high school background. Hays High graduates have for several years excelled in higher mathematics in college. Much credit for this success should be given to Miss Marie Brown.

The staff, in order to show its appreciation of academic study, dedicates this 1955 Indian Call to Miss Brown who has been a mathematics teacher on the Hays High faculty for thirteen years.



Students Enjoy Assembly in the New Auditorium

Bob Wynne, Hays High graduate of '47, dedicated the new Steinway Grand Piano.

The new auditorium is now in use for the students of Hays High and outside activities. The college used the auditorium to present a play early in the fall. Student assemblies are held throughout the year. It has seats for 918. This is just one of the many improvements of the Hays educational system.

Coach Grover Nutt introduces the football team at the victory assembly.

Life Silhouetted In 1955

A time-consuming activity is the publication of the Indian Call, Hays High's yearbook. This year the staff presented school life as a silhouette, an outline of the year's work and play.

Virgie Binder Is Homecoming Queen

The 1954 Homecoming was exciting for the alumni, faculty, and students of Hays High School. After a pep assembly at 3:30 p. m., the evening festivities began Friday, October 15, at 6:30 p. m., with a snake dance through Main street and stopping at the city auditorium for a bonfire.

The main attraction of the Homecoming program was the Stafford-Hays football game at Lewis Field, which ended in a 45-0 victory for Hays High. During the halftime the band formed a crown on the field, the lights went out, and the three candidates for queen—Virgie Binder, Kay Warren, and Bonnie Rogers—and their escorts—Jim Peters, Bob Keast, and Bob Munsell —walked up the royal carpet onto the field. As the lights went on Sonny Simons crowned Virgie Binder the Homecoming Queen. Ricky Wallace was the crownbearer.

After the game, there was a Homecoming dance at the high school for senior high students and alumni. The gym was decorated with footballs, pompoms, and scrolls that gave the scores for the Homecoming games of the last 10 years.

Pageant Presented in Auditorium

More than 125 high school students participated in the twenty-ninth annual presentation of the Christmas Pageant.

Three choirs with a total membership of 87, the brass choir, the string orchestra, and nine soloists provided the music for the pageant. Virgie Binder and Don Stanley played the parts of Mary and Joseph. Denny Lee, Denny Green, and Perry Bemis were the three kings. Mac Brewer was the reader; and Mary Lee Powell, the narrator. The shepherds were David Harris, Jim Maska, Bob Munsell, Ronnie Sharp, and Larry Pratt.

Vocal soloists were Kay Homburg who sang "Oh Holy Night"; Barbara Richards, "Oh Little Town of Bethlehem"; and Sue Suran, "Silent Night." Peggi Johnson played a violin solo, "Ave Maria"; and Marilyn McCartney accompanied at the piano and organ. Mrs. Miriam Perry, Melvin Bishop, James Graham, and James Lewis were the directors of the production.

Sandra:

The year is nearly over and here I am signing yearbooks again. The year has certainly gone fast. It has been a lot of hard work and also quite a bit of fun. It has gone awfully fast and I hope the next two years go as fast. It doesn't seem possible that we will be graduating in two short years.

Have fun through vacation this summer.

Lots of luck through the next two years.

Subscribers Elect Warren and Gosser

Kay Warren was crowned Indian Call Princess; and Roy Gosser, Indian Call Prince at the yearbook dance on Saturday night, January 8. Indian Call week started on Monday with twenty-three representatives of the homerooms acting as salesmen for the '55 yearbook. It was climaxed on Saturday with a free dance for all paid-in-full subscribers.

The theme of the dance was the '55 hit parade. The decorations were records and song sheets interspersed with the treble clefs. Hit No. 4 as chosen by the yearbook staff was Mr. Sandman sung by Sue Suran, Marilyn McCartney, and Jan Stewart. Hit No. 3 was Hold My Hand sung by Terry Hopkins, and No. 2 was Let Me Go Lover sung by Marilyn McCartney. Hit No. 1 was The Indian Love Call, the theme song of the Indian Call, at which time, Mac Brewer, big Indian Chief, crowned the Princess and Prince.

Sweetheart Royalty, Powell, and Harris

The announcement of 1955 King and Queen of Hearts climaxed the floor show of the Sweetheart Ball held on February 12. David Harris and Mary Lee Powell were elected by the couples at the dance who voted for their choice of ten candidates who had been chosen by the student body in the previous election.

An appreciative audience was on hand to watch the floor show. The theme was "Glimpses into the Past."

Principal Clyde Rothgeb crowned the King and Queen. Jenell Maska and Randy Westerman were the crownbearers. Furnishing the evening's entertainment was the Great Bend dance band. The Valentine theme was carried out with decorations in red and white.

Don Neely Elected Friendliest Student For '55

Students in grades seven through twelve nominated Don Neely as the friendliest student in Hays High for '55. The Guidon who sponsored the election kept the results a secret from the student body until the paper was issued, March 2.

Don, an all-sports man, lettered in football, basketball, and track, He was especially outstanding in track.

When Don graduates this year, his winning smile and f r i e n d l y greeting in the halls will be missed by the faculty and the student body.

ADMINISTRATION

Civic-Minded Citizens

Linking the schools and the community, the Board of Education meets once each month with Supt. Clyde U. Phillips in order to promote better education throughout the local schools.

Elected by the voters, these civic-minded citizens receive no pay but devote much of their time and effort helping to make the schools of Hays a better place in which to gain an education.

This year the board elected D. B. Simpson as president and W. A. Toepfer as vice president. Special recognition should be given to C. A. Harkness who has served as treasurer of the Board for twenty-eight years.

Keeping the administrative details going smoothly is Clyde U. Phillips (pictured on opposite page) who has been superintendent for twenty-four years in the Hays school system. Though high school students do not have much personal contact with Supt. Phillips, his influence is felt in many ways. He interviews prospective teachers; he visits classrooms; he speaks before civic clubs, discussing community educational problems; and he continually works for the advancement of education in the state and the nation.

Traditions are Preserved by the Student Council

The governing body of the school, is the student council. It is composed of representatives of homerooms who are elected for a term of one semester; the presidents of the sophomore, junior and senior classes; and the student body president, first, and second vice presidents, all of whom are elected for a term of one year. Through the efforts of this group, the traditions of the school are preserved and promoted.

This year the members went to Wa-Keeney to a student council conference. At this conference they discussed their constitution with other schools, and found ways to improve their own council.

Mr. Rothgeb was the advisor, and Mac Brewer was the student body president. The other presidents were Virgie Binder, first vice; and Terry Hopkins, second vice.

They Keep HHS Going

Keeping administrative details at the high school going smoothly are several people. Without their aid the school could not function.

The friendly face of Clyde W. Rothgeb, principal, is a familiar sight to everyone in Hays High School. He is seen signing absent slips, giving announcements over the P. A., or chatting with some student or faculty member in the halls.

Selling lunch tickets or counseling students is Valis Rockwell. He is also the man who keeps the budget balanced.

Doing the detailed tasks of the office are two efficient secretaries, Miss Alta Nulton and Mrs. Charlotte Seery. Miss Nulton also keeps the activity books of H.H.S.

The executive board is the governing body of the Junior High School. Sponsoring parties, junior high cheerleaders, ticket sales for the junior high play, approving assemblies, and planning dances for the Junior High were all part of their business. A. K. Massey sponsored the group which was elected to serve for one semester from the Junior High homerooms. The presidents of the three underclasses were also members.

Friends When Needed

The junior high students are under the guidance of A. K. Massey who is always a friend in need. Besides his duties as junior high principal, Mr. Massey is in charge of the school's visual education program.

The smiling face of Mrs. Alice Wynne, health counselor, is new to the Hays schools this year but not new to the community. She is assisted by Mrs. Ruth Leas.

Physical education and health are under the direction of Arthur Leas and Miss Hilma Shuss. "Art" is also head basketball coach, advisor to the H-Club and the traffic squad. Miss Shuss is advisor to G.A.A.

Shops Are New

A new metal shop and a new agricultural shop was added to the building in 1953-54. Grover Nutt is in charge of metal shop and head football coach. Edward Schukman is in charge of Vocational agriculture. His job is for eleven months of the year.

Robert Britton is in charge of the woodworking shop. It is the only shop located in the older part of the building. Each spring "Bob" and his students have a two-day industrial arts display that is visited by hundreds of people of the community.

Teachers in Eight teachers in Hays High devote most of their time to teaching communications, written and oral.

Miss Doris Starliper has classes in English 8, 9, and 10. She is also advisor to the courtesy committee whose members are on hall duty every day. Mrs. Edna Coder has classes in English 9 and journalism. She is advisor to the semi-monthly school paper which is published by the journalism class.

Mrs. Helen Hundley has classes in English 10 and Latin I and II. She also sponsors the Junior Classical League. Mrs. Miriam Perry is the junior English and Spanish instructor. She serves as a chairman of the junior class advisors and also of the Christmas pageant.

Communications

George Gatschet comes to the high school at 2:00 to teach penmanship. The library and supervised study periods are under the guidance of Miss Blanche Bloxom. James Lewis has inherited more than his share of night activities. He directs the all-school play, the junior play, the Thespian one-act plays, the debate squad, and the forensic activities. His teaching schedule includes speech, dramatics, and English 9.

Miss Mabelle Vandeventer, who taught in Hays High in 1946-47, returned this year as junior high English and social science instructor. She also advises the largest organization in school, the junior Kayettes.

For the first time since '51, debate was a part of the school program. Under the direction of James Lewis, speech instructor, the following were out for debate: (seated) James Lewis, Kay ImMasche, and Jim Linenberge; (standing) Perry Bemis, Ronald Sharp, Steve Flood, and Denny Lee.

Basis For Technical Jobs

Back of every known engineer, scientist, doctor, and many other professions is a good background in science and mathematics. The curriculum in each of these is a full senior high program.

Gerald Schmidt was added to the staff this year to relieve the heavy enrollment in both science and mathematics. Miss Marie Brown has classes in senior high mathematics and Mrs. Ruth Harris has classes in junior high mathematics. Mrs. Harris also coaches the junior high play.

Mr. Harold Elder, who is president of the Hays City Teachers Association, teaches classes in science. Mr. Elder also advises the science club and the Future Teachers of America.

Dissecting a frog seems to be enjoyable from the smile on Pat Gross' face as she lends a hand to Kenneth Solomon at the job in biology.

Social Science, a Must

A social science minor is required for graduation. Every student takes American history and constitution. Each may select another half unit to complete his work.

Miss Wilda Smith has classes in American history, world history, and constitution. She advises the Kayettes. Robert Blazer teaches driver training and junior high history. He is also the junior high athletic coach and instructor in golf. "Bob" is advisor to the ever-busy dance committee, too.

Gleyn Lowe has classes in driver training and junior high civics. Gleyn is also head track coach and helps on the other major sports. Richard Burnett, who started teaching in '50 but was called into the service, returned this year to the social science department and is one of the guidance directors of the school system. Dick also is the head senior advisor.

Teachers never work is the opinion of most students. From the looks of Miss Wilda Smith's desk after final exams, there's lots of work to be done after the students have gone home.

Learn By Doing

Back of every job is a learning period. The business education department offers students a chance to learn a useable skill in business. And the home economics and art departments offer the students an opportunity to learn a useable skill for making better homes.

Miss Alta Behrens and Miss Alpha Elting have classes in business education. Miss Behrens is advisor to the yearbook and Miss Elting is advisor for Future Business Leaders of America.

Miss Kathryn Ratzloff has a very heavy load, all the classes in junior and senior high that are offered in homemaking. She also advises the Future Homemakers of America.

Elmer Holzrichter has classes in arts and crafts. He is also advisor for both the junior high and senior high art clubs.

Student Teachers, a Part

The student teacher training program, under the direction of Calvin Harbin and Kenneth White, is carried on for six weeks during each semester at the high school. The college students observe and teach in their major fields during that period. They take part in the high school activities. The student body looks to them as future teachers and willingly co-operate in this training program.

Five Janitors Keep High School Clean

Alois Miller

Each Monday morning the school blackboards were shining and the school had the smell of cleanness. Not only on Monday, but every day, the halls were swept, desks dusted, and rooms straightened.

It wasn't just anyone doing this work. It was the ever ready, hardworking janitors. Whenever you needed a helping hand on opening lockers, or getting equipment that was locked up, you could always count on the janitors to help.

Head custodian for the school was Alois Miller, the other janitors were Charles Seitz, Don Miller, Clarence Miller, and A. L. Debes.

Class of '55 Graduates

On May 24, the members of the class of '55 ended their high school days. Baccalaureate, May 22, and the Commencement exercises were held for the first time in the new auditorium.

To earn money for their yearly trip seniors sold concessions at games and sponsored a pay assembly for the students. The assembly was a basketball game between the senior boys and the faculty men.

Athletes of the class of '55 helped to produce championship teams.

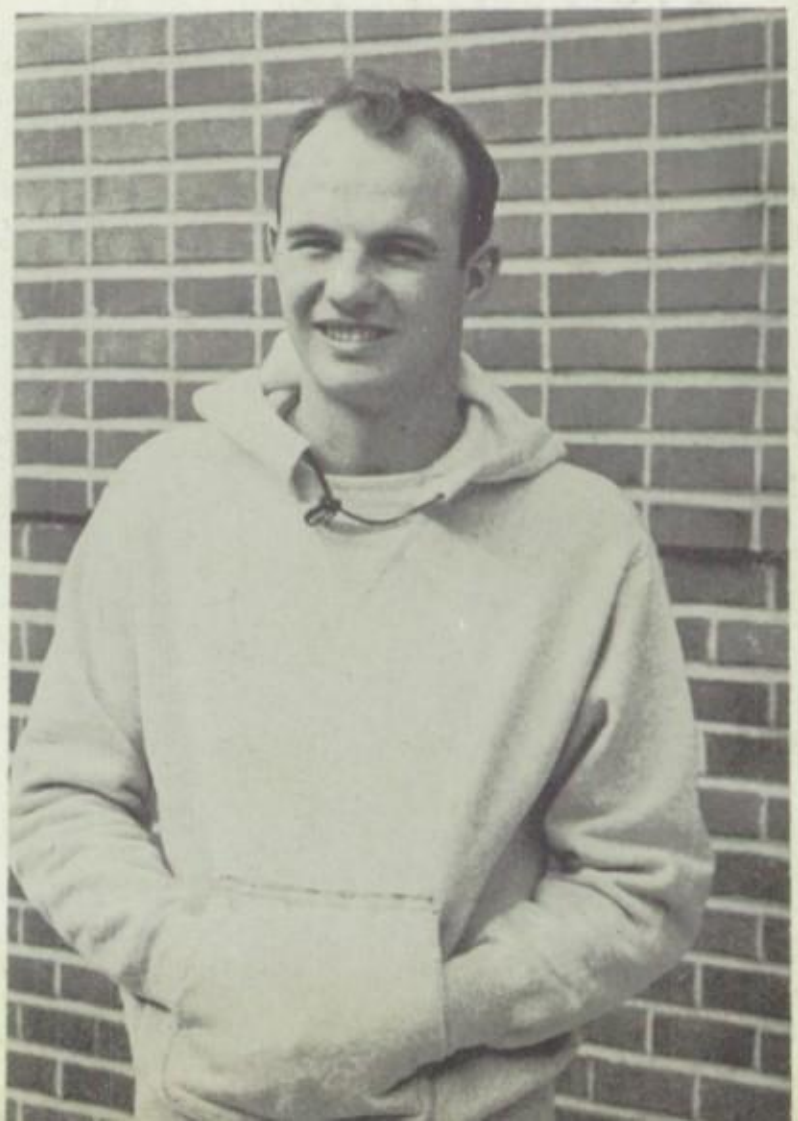
Don Pratt, a licensed pilot, was March Rotarian.

John Floyd, a good Hays tennis player, was the April Rotarian.

Don Neely, outstanding trackman, was the May Rotarian.



Visit to Land Of Midnight Sun

From the high mountains and steep cliffs echoed a welcome to all who came to "The Land of The Midnight Sun." The junior-senior prom was held in the gym which was decorated in green crepe paper hanging from the sides. In the middle of the sky, which was decorated in light blue crepe paper, was the large shining midnight sun. The programs were red and gold mittens, and the favors were skiis and poles.

On April 24, 1954, M. C. Jack Feiden introduced Mr. A. K. Massey who spoke on "May the Light Shine"; Virgie Binder, "Welcome to the Land of the Midnight Sun"; Maria Cherner, "Our Holiday in the Mountains"; Bill R h o a d e s, "Unending Quest"; and Elmer "Jack" Johnson, "Reaching the Summit."

After the banquet the floor was cleared for dancing among the mountains with music furnished by Jim Maxwell's All Girl Orchestra. Midway through the evening the guests were entertained by folk dancers and a duet, "Anywhere I Wander," sung by Dixie Harmon and Wayne Lasater. The entertainment was closed with impersonations by Paul Blomquist.

Couples enjoyed the dance.

Bob Wheeler, Bette Rhoades, Maria Cherner, and Don Meseke enjoy the prom of '54.

Dear Judy,
It's been great seeing in history writing this year. I thought you did a real "gone" job in showing. I've very sure you should be a catcher. Lots of luck.

Dear Sandy,
I have really enjoyed being in Art Class with you this year. I sure hope we will be together next year again. You are a swell girl and I like you a lot. We sure did have fun drawing at the games and parties. This year certainly did fly by, didn't it? I wish we could all be all together again. I wish you all the best in the future and I hope you will always be real good friends with me.

Brass Sextet—Front row: L. Marshall, K. Weigel, and M. McCartney. Back row: J. Reynods, C. M. Wann, and V. Stadleman.

The band was once again one of the most active of musical groups this year. Seventy-five members strong, the band practiced marching diligently in preparation for performances during halftime at several football games. Later in the year this large organization played a pair of exchange concerts. A tape recording of Christmas music as recorded by the band was played over K-A-Y-S. The years activities were crowned by participation in the Regional Music Contest.

Many members from the band were in small ensembles. Along with students who perfected solos, these ensembles played for various civic clubs and also performed at the Regional Music Contest.

Orchestra and Affiliated Groups Saw Classics

A busy group was the Hays High Orchestra. Industrious work paid off in fine performances at an exchange concert, a spring concert, and the regional music contest. Various soloists from the orchestra memorized difficult solos and played them often for various civic groups. The small ensembles, which were active this year, were of high musical quality.

Strings Through The Year

The string orchestra was one of the innumerable small instrumental groups which had its practices in the period between 7:45 and 8:25 in the morning. Hard work paid off in a good showing at the Garden City Orchestra Clinic. The String Orchestra members played in a concert given at this Clinic and the participation in this two day event was the high point for the string players.

Madrigals Sing For Music Educators, Perform on T.V.

Madrigals became the foremost group of the Senior High vocal ensembles by their participation in the Southwestern District Meeting of the National Music Educators' Conference which occurred at Hutchinson this year. They sang the old European Madrigal tunes as well as some contemporary music and dressed in costumes copied from the English clothing of the 16th century. The meeting was attended by Music Educators from seven states. After their concert they appeared on KTVH, channel 12, television station in Hutchinson. The Madrigals, also, were on Great Bend's television station, KCKT, channel 2, as well as appearing before several clubs and organizations in Hays.

German dancers who performed while the Madrigals sang, "Tanzen Und Springen", were Jo Lynn Frederikson, Bill Ward, Kenny Weigel, and Judith Carson.

Enthusiastic Vocal Students Present Varied Program

Once more, vocal music was a popular non-solid in Hays High curriculum this past year, both in junior and senior high. Led by the enthusiastic Melvin Bishop, various groups of students performed throughout the past year, both in concert and at civic clubs.

Concert choir, sixty members strong, was one of these frequent performers. They sang at Kansas State Teachers convention, P.T.A., presented a Fall concert, and exchanged concerts with other schools.

The vocal music of the school is under the direction of Melvin Bishop.

Students Present Sun Up

"Whar thar is hate, thar will be feuds - -" that is what Mrs. Cagle, the old hard-bitten North Carolina backwoods character, learned the hard way in the All School Play, "Sun Up", which was presented, January 13, in the auditorium.

The role of Mrs. Cagle was portrayed by Barbara Richards. Denny Lee played the role of Rufe, Mrs. Cagle's warbound son who was shot in action. Virgie Binder who was to play the role of Emmy Todd, Rufe's sweetheart, took sick several days before the day the play was scheduled. Sue Suran, who was prompter, took over the part of Emmy Todd.

Adding a touch of humor was Pap Todd, played by Denny Green. Jeff Reynolds spent several months growing his sideburns that he needed for the role of Preacher. Representing the "law", that Mrs. Cagle hated so violently, was Steve Flood as the Sheriff. Mac Brewer capably interpreted the part of the Stranger. Ronnie Sharp played the part of Budd Todd who was to take care of the "women folk" when Rufe left.

A professional touch was added to the production by the skillful use of lighting and staging under the management of Perry Bemis assisted by Larry Pratt. Rosalie Kraus took over as prompter and James Lewis, speech teacher, was director.

(Top) The members of the production staff are director, Mr. Lewis; assistant stage manager, Larry Pratt; prompter, Rosalie Kraus; stage manager, Perry Bemis. (Middle) Emmy Todd stops Mrs. Cagle from shooting the stranger. (Bottom) The Preacher, Pap Todd, and the Sheriff, leaving after the marriage ceremony.

Junior Play, January 16th

"Guilty or not guilty," is what the jury selected from the audience had to decide about Karin Andre in the Junior Class play presented April 5 in the new auditorium. The play, "The Night of January 16th," written by Ayn Rand, is the story of the courtroom trial of Karen Andre who is accused of murdering her employer, Bjorn Faulkner. The play was directed by dramatics instructor, James Lewis.

Defending the accused was Bill Ward. The District Attorney was Francis Zimmerman. Sue Suran played the part of Karen Andre. Others in the cast were Rosalie Kraus as Nancy Faulkner; Denny Green, Larry Regan; Terry Hopkins, Elmer Sweeney; Marilyn McCartney, Mrs. John Hopkins; Judy Lewis, Magda Svenson; Jack Harrison, Sigurd Jungquist; Deanna Whitney, Roberta Van Rensselaer; Perry Bemis, Judge Heath; Shirley LaRue, Jane Chandler: Mike Francis, Dr. Kirkland; Louis Bell, Bailiff; Lawrence Younger, Homer Van Fleet; Ronnie Koerner, John Graham Whitfield; and Don Krannawitter, as Clerk of the Court.

(Top) Francis Zimmerman accosts Bill Ward as the two attorneys have a battle of words; Jack Harrison and Lawrence Younger look on. (Middle) As the two attorneys watch, Sue Suran and Rosalie Kraus entangle in another battle of words. (Bottom) CAST Seated: S. Suran, D. Whitney, R. Kraus, S. LaRue, L. Younger, J. Lewis, and D. Green. Standing: M. McCartney, D. Krannawitter, P. Bemis, B. Ward, F. Zimmerman, M. Francis, J. Harrison, and L. Bell.

"Boarding House Reach"

Many Junior High students got their first taste of the stage while appearing in the Junior High play, "The Boarding House Reach." The play, written by Donald Payton, was presented in the new auditorium on March 16. It was directed by Mrs. Ruth Harris, Junior High mathematics teacher.

Playing the lead role of Wilbur Maxwell, a boy who went to great length to try to get a bicycle for himself, was Quentin Danielson. His bosom pal, Hercules Nelson, was played by Henry Schwaller. Comprising the rest of the Maxwell family were Deanna Rumbaugh and Joyce Philip as Betty Lou and Connie Maxwell, the sisters. Diane Amos and Phil Havener played the mother and father, Janet and John Maxwell.

Others in the cast were Sharon Seery as Bernadine Smith; Mary Margaret Brumitt, Aunt Mary; Ronnie Ryan, Limpy McGuire; Pam Chittenden, Nora McGuire; Dennis Lamberd, Herman "Ninety Volt" Jones; Elsie Bieber, Roughouse Ruby; Gilbert Kobler, Mr. Potter; Gretchen Lee, Lucy Burns; Virginia Wood, Mrs. Mott; Stanley Hogsett, Connoly; Gilbert Kobler, stage manager; Lois Reynolds, property manager; Virginia Wood, costume manager; Beth Fellers, business manager: Karen Oldham, prompter.

(Top) The members of the production staff were—Seated: L. Reynolds, V. Woods, Mrs. Ruth Harris, director. Standing: B. Fellers, K. Oldham, G. Kobler. (Middle) 'Sing!", says Limpy to Wilbur as Nora and Hercules watch. (Bottom) CAST Front row: G. Lee, G. Kobler, P. Havener, D. Rumbaugh, D. Amos, V. Wood, Q. Danielson, H. Schwaller, and M. Brumitt. Art Club Has Varied Program

Made up of students with a special interest in art the Art Club of Hays High School promoted interest in art and worked on worth while school service projects.

The club sponsored an art show open to the student body from which selections were made to be framed and hung in various classrooms. A new Christmas decoration for the front lawn was another project.

Programs consisted of art films and demonstrations in various art media. A field trip was sponsored by the club during the second semester.

Dear Sandra, (Harry)

I have had lots of fun with you this year. I hope you want I will continue being good friends. Even though we have had arguments and have been mad at you I can't stay mad because you are my very best friend.

I want you to know that when I have trouble I can always turn to you for help. I also want to thank you for trying to get Denise and I together. Even though it didn't work out. Thanks a million.

Next year when we are in the big Juniors I hope we can have as much fun as this year. I think you know what I mean so I won't bother to explain.

Before I close I hope you and Harry will get together, because I know how you feel about him.

a friend always, and always,

Judy

Dance Committee Plan Social Life

Social life of the students at Hays High is in the hands of the dance committee. This committee is a voluntary group of students approved by the student council who is responsible for the plans of all dances and parties of the senior high.

Two formal dances were held this year —one at Christmas, and one in February; six informal dances, and about 10 after game dances which were sponsored by the P. T. A. Virgie Binder was general chairman and Bob Blazer was head faculty advisor. The other chairmen were Frank Evans, in charge of decorations; Virginia Shade, refreshment: Terry Hopkins, floorshow; Jack Feiden, admissions; Deanna Whitney, music; and Bill Ward, publicity.

F.B.L.A. Members Study Personality

If there's an office job to be done, the F. B. L. A. was at your service. Hays High Chapter, 343, served the school and community by assisting dentists, typing tests, taking letters, making yearbooks, etc.

Their major project for the year was "improving personality." The club's program was highlighted by attendance at the state convention, on March 19 and 20 at Emporia.

Stevie Hale served as club president and Misses Alpha Elting and Alta Behrens were advisors. Other officers were Mary Lee Powell, 1st vice president; in charge of program; Ruth Walburn, 2nd vice president in charge of membership; Phyllis Westerman, secretary; Bob Ruder, treasurer; Shirley LaRue, historian; and Bonnie Wenzl, state historian.

Members Are Boys In Agriculture

F.F.A. is an organization for senior high boys enrolled in agriculture. Their goals are scholarship, leadership, co-operation, and supervised farming.

They attended judging schools at Smith Center, Colby, Manhattan, Oberlin, and the Hutchinson Fair.

To make money they butchered, had a scrap drive, sold concessions, and built a tool shed to sell at public auction. Aside all this work there was also pleasure in F.F.A.

Early in the fall, they held their Greenhand initiation party for their new members; and their dads were also invited. Late in the spring they held their parent-son banquet, to which their parent, faculty, and honored guests were invited.

Roy Gosser was president for this year, and Edward Schukman was their advisor. The other officers were Virgil Stadelman, vice president; Darrell Ubert, secretary, Perry Bemis, treasurer; Don Davis, reporter; and Robert Braun, sentinel.

Personal Improvement, Project of the Year

F.H.A. is an organization for girls who have taken freshman home economics. Their meetings were held the second and fourth Mondays of each month. The programs were centered on personal improvement.

"Easter Parade," the club's style show was held in the spring. Newly added to the spring activities was the parent-daughter banquet.

Members of the club were divided into groups to make money for the trip to the state meeting in Topeka. Kay Warren was the District 2 vice president.

Kay Warren was president for this year, and Kathryn Ratzloff was the advisor. June Rohr, vice president, took over the duties as president the second semester when the president quit school. Other officers were: Judy Broadbooks, secretary; Sonja Danielson, treasurer; Carol Brungardt, historian; Janice Westerman, song leader; Betty Davis, reporter; Elma Jane Binder, parliamentarian; and Mrs. Allen Broadbooks, chapter mother.

Serving tea for the student teachers were: Janyce Westerman, Betty Mermis, Alverta Leikam, and Donnetta Herl.

Girls Earn Athletic Letters

The G.A.A. is a state organization which is sponsored by the Kansas Activities Association. It is the only way in which girls may earn letters in athletics. These letters are earned on a point basis.

Participation in sports gives each member points toward letters. Any senior high girl may join. The Girls Athletic Association met every Tuesday at 4:00.

Staff Publishes Semi-Monthly School Paper

The school paper for Hays High is the Guidon, a semi-monthly publication. During second hour the staff was busy writing editorials, typing copy, and the many other jobs that go with putting out a paper.

The Guidon sponsored the election of the friendliest student, and other surveys. Mrs. Edna Coder, English instructor, was the advisor and Bonnie Rogers was the editor.

With the Guidon off the press, there's much work to be done for the Guidon staff members.

The letterman's club at the high school is the H-Club. Any boy who letters in sports is eligible for membership.

The H-Club boys service the coke machines, clean the trophy case, discourage smoking on the campus, and discourage people from wearing other school sweaters and letters to school. The club helps to protect and advance the athletic interest in the school. It helps to develop good citizenship.

This year the club sponsored a pay assembly, held the annual chili feed, and Father and Son Banquet. Initiation for new members was held at the annual spring picnic.

Art Leas, basketball coach, was the faculty advisor; and Neil Dreiling was the president. Other officers were Gene McCurdy, vice president; John Floyd, secretary; and Jack Harrison, treasurer.

Little Sister Club Of Kayettes

A little sister club of Kayettes is the Junior Kayettes. It is a state club with the slogan of, "Laugh, Love, Lift," and a motto of "Today For Tomorrow," the same as the Senior Kayettes.

This is the first year for the Junior Kayettes, and they worked for their 1,000 point award. The way they earned some of their points were by having a church day, giving money for "Meals for Millions," selling T. B. bangles, decorating the Christmas tree, and having the mother-daughter banquet.

Miss Mabelle Vandeventer was their advisor, and Karen Seery was the president. Other officers for the year were Lee Gretchen, vice president; Beth Fellers, secretary; and Diane Amos, treasurer.

Janet Harrison was crowned Valentine Queen for the Junior Kayettes Valentine party.

Party time is contest time for the Junior Kayettes.

KAY Club Talent Show Is Popular

The KAY Club whose motto, "Today for Tommorrow," is an organization which serves the school, community, and the nation. Some of their service projects for the year were helping needy families, attending church, helping with "Meals for Millions," preparing Care packages, and serving refreshments at faculty meetings.

This club sponsored the annual talent show as a money making project. About ten students participated. The KAY club held its meetings the second and third Thursdays of each month.

Again Hays High School has the honor of the KAY & Kayette District President. Denny Lee was elected at the close of the district conference held in Hays, October 11 and 12. Mac Brewer was president of the local club this year. Other officers were Denny Lee, vice president; Jack Feiden, secretary; and Don Neely, treasurer; and Melvin Bishop was the advisor.

The Kay Club members all participated in the pep assembly which they sponsored.

Kayette Members Serve Community

Popular organization of senior high girls is the state organization, Kayettes. This year they worked for their 1,000 point award. To earn points they adopted families for Thanksgiving and Christmas. Also they made favors for the hospitals on Valentine's day.

Kayettes sponsored a pay assembly, a dance, and a box supper.

Their motto was "Today for Tomorrow," and their slogan, "Laugh, Love, Lift."

Miss Smith was the faculty advisor, and Virginia Shade was the president. The other officers were "Peggi" Johnson, vice president; Mary Lee Powell, secretary; and Ruth Walburn, treasurer.

Klick "Klubers" Have Busy Year

Snap! Snap! If you're in the way, you'll probably be on display! A popular hobby club at Hays High is the Klick Klub, which was open to all students in grades 7-12 who were interested in photography.

In Klick Klub students learned to take proper care of cameras and how to use the school's darkroom. During the year they held meetings in which developing and printing were demonstrated and practiced.

Steve Flood served as president for the year, and Miss Behrens was the faculty advisor. The other officers were Jim Linenberger, vice president; Marilyn McCartney, secretary; and Judith Carson, treasurer. On November 30 Klick Klub held initiation for 24 students.

Steve Flood and Jim Linenberger were the darkroom trustees.

Pep Club Revives Indian Ceremony

Back of every winning team is an enthusiastic pep club. Special assembly sponsored by the pep club was the traditional Pow Wow. The Pow Wow represents the Indian ceremony of the spirits. It is held each year just before the Cadet football game.

Pep assemblies were held in the big gym before all the football games and preceding the home basketball games.

Mary Lee Powell served as president of the Pep Club. Other officers were Jane Chittenden, vice president; Kay Warren, secretary; Bonnie Rogers, treasurer; and their advisor was Richard Burnett.

Barbara Richards selected the study of mountain formations as her science project. Her report was prepared in bas relief on plaster of paris.

Bill Luecke selected soils as his science project. He did most of his work at the Fort Hays Experiment Station.

Denny Lee selected radar as his science project. He has his equipment set up in the basement of his home.

Club Specialists In Individual Projects

The members of the science club each work on their own projects throughout the year. They also have a club project, which they all work on together. The science club is a member of the State organization; "Academy of Science," and the National organization; "Science Club of America." The state meeting of Academy of Science was held this year at Lawrence.

Harold Elder was the advisor, and Barbara Richards was the president. Other officers were Denny Lee, vice president; and Bob Munsell, secretary-treasurer.

Dramatic Students Join Thespians

On Thespians' night, October 26, three one-act plays were presented to the public. This gave interested persons an opportunity to earn points for membership.

The annual spring banquet and initiation of new members climaxed the year's activities.

In "The Valiant," Herb Hurst played the part of the warden, Phil Havener as Father Daly, and Sonny Simons, as James Dyke, the condemned convict.

Jim Linenberger, Steve Flood and Sue Suran played leading parts in "Why I Am a Bachelor." Others in the cast were Sandra Tourtillott, Barbara Richards, and Lou Cella Saindon.

Dear Sandra,

Didn't we three hags have fun in the play? I wish we could do another one together. I do wish that you would stop screaming though or I won't have much if any ear drums left. Good luck and happy times to you. I sincerely hope that you have as much fun in high school as I have had.

Yours in showmanship,

Barbara Richards

Traffic Squad Promotes Safety for Students

The traffic squad was composed of senior-high boys interested in the safety of others. They left the building early to take their posts before school was dismissed. They were sponsored by Art Leas, physical education teacher, They are recognized by the safety patrols of Kansas as doing an outstanding job in safety.

Dear Sandy,
Who thar it sure has been nice knowing you. I don't know what I would have done without you. Best of luck to you to a real sweet girl.

ATHLETICS

Coach Grover Nutt

Coach Nutt's Warriors Take W.C.K.L. Crown

The Hays High Indians gained their first undisputed football championship since 1931. The Indians, coached by Grover Nutt, won 9 and lost 0. The Warriors also won the city championship by edging the St. Joseph Cadets, 21-19.

Four players were placed on the first team of the West Central Kansas League. The Indians given the top league honors were ends, Gene McCurdy and Neil Dreiling; guard, Gary Arnhold; and halfback, Jim Maska. Roger Nelson and Don Neely were named to the second team. Indians John Floyd, quarterback, and Wayne Lasater, tackle, were given honorable mention. Gene McCurdy and Jim Maska were unanimously selected by the league coaches for the first team.

Kansas sports writers and broadcasters voted Hays High fourth in the final poll of the state.

Cheerleaders Help Promote Good Sportsmanship

Good sportsmanship, enthusiasm, and pep are a few of the requirements for cheerleaders. The senior high cheerleaders were elected at the beginning of school for the year from grades ten through twelve. Their uniforms were circular gold corduroy skirts lined in maroon, with maroon sweaters. The girls were able to travel to all the games, thanks to Miss Hilma Shuss, physical education instructor.

The junior high cheerleaders were elected at the beginning of basketball season. They were elected from grades seven through nine. Their uniforms were circular maroon corduroy skirts, with gold sweaters.

Junior High cheerleaders were: Karen Seery, Janet Harrison, Beth Fellers, Sharon Seery, and Pat Isbell. The alternate was Mary Ann Lawler.

Dear Sandra,
It sure has been fun having you in all the classes that are in together. You're a very swell girl, so just keep that friendly personality and you will be a real success.
Good LUCK

Warriors Are W.C.K.L. Champs

Turning in a record season, the Hays High Indians chalked up a tally of 18 wins and 2 losses.

The 54-55 season was opened successfully when both A and B squads won their first road game, played at WaKeeney. Dodge City was next on the schedule. Playing on their home court, the Indians once more outscored their opponents, winning in an overtime. The B-squad dropped this game, by a narrow 2-point margin.

Great Bend hosted the Indians on December 17, with the B-squad on the losing side, while the A-squad added another victory to their record.

In the traditional rivalry between St. Joseph's and Hays High, with the Cadets visiting the Indians, the Cadets were scalped in both games. Another home game with Stafford gave the Indians a short breather. Both games went to the Indians by large scores.

The next game was a thriller with the Warriors defeating Russell at Russell, although Russell evened up the winning by defeating the Hays High B-squad. January 14, Larned took over the visitors side of the score book. The tallies of both games came out in Hays High's favor. Next in line for another Hays High victory, Pratt played the perfect host, letting the Indians come back with two more victories.

For a mid-season break the Indians acquired a first place trophy by defeating Inman, Chanute, and Haven in the Dodge City Invitational Tourney.

Opening the second round of league play, the Indians returned to Dodge City. The Indians kept their undefeated record by coming home with a 1 and 1 situation, the B-squad losing, the A-squad winning. Still on the road, Stafford granted another 2 contests to the Indians teams. A strong Russell team balanced the season's books by handing Hays High their only league loss. This time the B-squad turned in the win with the A-squad the loss.

The Indians were out to prove that only one loss was all that would be on the record and redeemed themselves by taking two more games from Larned. With the season's end in sight, the Indians took a game, and gave a game, A and B, respectively, to Pratt in a home game.

In a return match with St. Joseph's, the B-squad lost, while the Indians subdued the Cadets A-squad. In the final game of the season, the Warriors took Great Bend in a makeup game. The B-squad dropped Great Bend to give them a season record of 8 wins to 7 losses.

The Indians turned in 11 wins and 1 loss to take the West Central Kansas League. In the district tournament, played in Ellis, the Indians went down in defeat to Ellis, took Victoria the next night to end the season. Although the Indians lost their chance to go to the state in one evening, they turned in an excellent season record, of which the students of Hays High may well be proud.

Enthusiastic students display their school spirit.

Little Indians Have Good Record

The Freshman squad coached by Gleyn Lowe, had an outstanding season, winning 8 and losing only 1. The little Indians' schedule included 4 home games and 5 road games.

They opened the season at home, handing Phillipsburg a defeat. Next they traveled to La Crosse, winning by a large margin. On January 5, the junior warriors took to the road again; this time defeated WaKeeney. The rivalry between Hays High and St. Joseph's starts early—in the next game the little Indians clipped the Cadets; then beat Russell in a home game by a narrow 1 point margin.

In a home game January 24, the small Braves defeated Stockton.

On the road for the next two games, the Freshman sustained their record by overriding Russell and Stockton again.

Back home for the closer, defeat from Phillipsburg collapsed their undefeated standing, leaving a good season's record of 8 wins and 1 loss.

Papooses Train for Future

Coached by Bob Blazer, the 7th and 8th grade team won 2 games and lost 4.

As a whole team, the Papooses played 3 home games and 3 road games. They lost their opener with Russell but won the next game with Stockton. Still at home, they claimed their second win, Munjor.

On the road for the next 3 games, they lost to Russell and Stockton, and were eliminated in the first round of the Russell Tourney by Natoma.

Playing as separate teams the 7th graders won 2 and lost 2, while the 8th graders won 1 and lost 1.

The 7th grade was victorious over Washington 6th grade and Catherine, but were defeated by Ellis and Victoria.

During their season the 8th grade defeated Ellis by one point, and lost to Victoria.

The junior high sports program serves as a training period for the Varsity squad. The Papooses have done well this year, and have established a good season's record.

W.C.K.L. High Jump Record Broken By Thinclad

Lending strength to low hurdles event was Jim "Rabbit" Maska.

Hank Pierce set a new high school and league high jump record by breaking his own record in the West Central Kansas League. Last year Pierce held the record with 5 feet 10½ inches but topped it at 6 feet at the WCKL meet on May 1.

The 880-relay team broke the old school record of 1:35.3 with a new record of 1:33.5. Don Neely, Jim Maska, Ralph Pfeifer, and Hank Pierce were the members of the 880-relay team. Ralph Pfeifer with a time of 10.1 broke the school record on the 100-yard dash which was held by Don Hurdle '43 and Joe Wasinger '49 with 10.4.

Three events placed in the state track meet, which gave the Indians a tie for eighth place. The 880-relay team took third; Gene McCurdy, third in discus; and Ervell Staab, fourth in the discus.

Nineteen thinclads received school letters. They were: Hank Pierce, Don Neely, Ervell Staab, Rodney Whitney, Ralph Pfeifer, Jim Peters, Jim Maska, David Harris, Jim Casper, Bob Ruder, Roy Gosser, Dan Johnson, Herbert Weigel, Leroy Koerner, Don Finney, Marvin Poe, Roger Nelson, George Maska, and Max Higgins, manager.

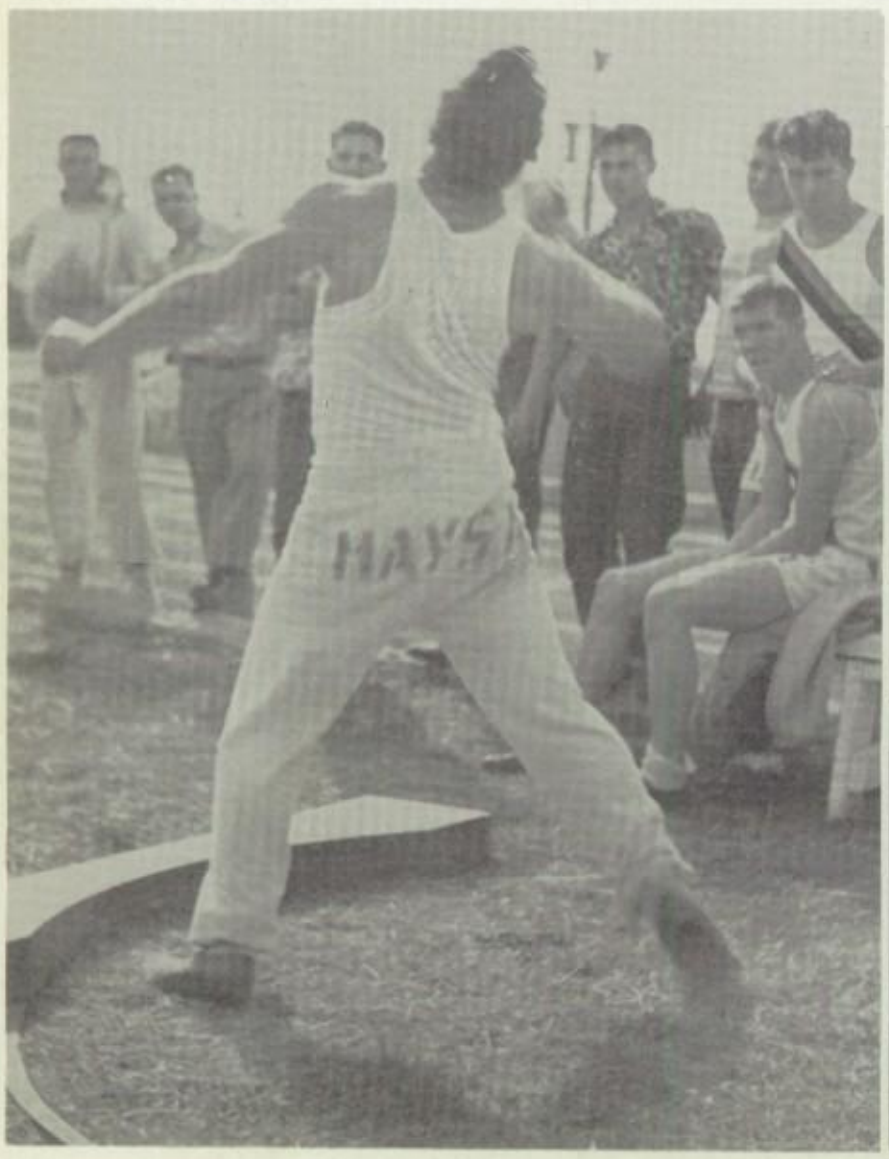
Ervell Staab heaves the shotput for additional points for the Indians.



The 880-relay team, Jim Maska, Ralph Pfeifer, Hank Pierce, and Don Neely, set a new school record of 1:33.5.

Sandra,

I guess we have been friends ever since we were in grade school, but I feel that we have been closer this year more than other years before. First, if I had more time to think, I would like you of all the wonderful times I have enjoyed in your company. I think you are a sweet girl, and I hope we will remain friends always. Just think, we will be big juniors next year, but some time last year I thought the same things about being freshmen. As you can see, I have run out of words but I want to wish you the best of luck in the coming years.

As always,
Sandi

P. S.
When you get married, and have twins don't come to me for safety pins.
Have your boyfriends?
Love

Dear Sandy,
I enjoyed having you in my biology class. Chemistry is a cinch isn't it? I can't understand the teacher either. Be good and good luck next year.

"Sandy,"
I know you'll go far in this world because you have a swell personality. Keep it up. A Pal forever
Lou Ella

P.S. Keep up the good work in speech class, you're wonderful in plays.

Hi ya Sandra,
I've really enjoyed having you in my classes these two years. Especially 4th per. Here's wishing you the best of luck in the future!
